

Gilmore, Jasion & Mahler Ranked on Nation's Top Five Fastest-Growing Firms List

Maumee, Ohio (October 17th, 2011) – Gilmore, Jasion & Mahler (GJM) is pleased to announce that it was named as one of Inside Public Accounting's Top Five Fastest-Growing Firms in the nation for the Midwest. GJM was also selected as an All Star Firm based on their practice management performance as compared with 400 other firms across the country. In 2011, the fastest-growing firms in the nation, as named by IPA, are turning in double-digit growth during a time when many considered it to be nearly impossible.

"We feel extremely proud to be recognized for this award and feel very fortunate to continue to grow even in these tough economic times," commented Kevin Gilmore, CPA, CVA, Managing Partner of GJM. "This designation is a testament to the hard work of our dedicated professionals which is essential for our continued success."

"The success of these firms is a tribute to their leadership. Their performance defies economic trends by recognizing the long-term goals that are needed in order to sustain growth through both prosperous times and down times," says Kelly Platt, managing editor of IPA. "We salute all of these firms and recognize their overall management strategies as models that the profession can be quite proud of," Platt concludes.

Based in Maumee, GJM is the largest locally owned accounting and business consulting firm in Northwest Ohio with over 75 professionals. Since they opened their doors in 1996, GJM is has challenged the "typically accounting firm" model. As a member of the McGladrey Alliance, the premier affiliation of independent accounting firms, GJM has access to over 600 offices in 70 countries globally.
