Plymouth Venture Partners II, L.P. engages Accounting and Audit Firms

Mark Horne, Managing Partner of Plymouth Venture Partners II, L.P. announced today the engagement of two professional firms who will handle the Fund's accounting and audit functions. "As we prepare for the Fund's first capital call, we are pleased to announce these two important appointments. Both firms have excellent reputations for quality service to their clients, and will help us provide financial assurance and transparency to our individual and institutional investors." Horne said.

Third Party Fund Administrator – Cendrowski Corporate Advisors, LLC

Cendrowski Corporate Advisors, LLC and its affiliate Cendrowski Selecky Professional Corporation have served clients for over 25 years. With offices in Bloomfield Hills, MI and Chicago, IL, they work hand in hand with private equity and venture capital firms and their portfolio companies to help them achieve their financial goals. Their services include back and middle office operations, tax planning and compliance, business valuations, integrated risk assessment, and operational assessments. The CCA team's experience runs deeper than finance or accounting. Each team member has years of hands-on operational experience that supplements their knowledge in these areas. They hold nationally recognized financial and accounting certifications, teach at universities and colleges, and contribute to the advancement of their profession through service activities.

John T. Alfonsi and the principals of CCA are honored to be selected as the accountants and third party fund administrator for Plymouth Venture Partners Fund II. "We are committed to the venture capital and private equity industries. The Great Lakes Region provides many opportunities for funds and investors and Plymouth Management Company is poised for continued success. We look forward to serving them and assisting in that success." said Alfonsi.

Auditor – Gilmore, Jasion & Mahler, LTD (member of the RSM McGladrey network)
